

Name:
Hagens/Period:
GT8
Date:

Latin Roots Lesson 9

Here are seven words which contain Latin bases. Choose the appropriate word to complete each of the sentences. Write the word in the space.

GENEALOGY
VALIANT

CORPUSCLES
DEPARTMENT

PROJECT
INVINCIBLE

FLUENT

1. The _____ soldier was awarded a Purple Heart for bravery.
2. The actor could _____ his voice to the last rows of the theatre.
3. John became excited about his _____ after discovering he was descended from Eric the Red.
4. The undefeated basketball team had seemed _____ until its star center fouled out of the game.
5. Red _____ carry oxygen from the lungs to various parts of the body.
6. Roger's _____ was always impeccable until the doorbell rang and guests began to arrive.
7. The four-year-old immigrant child soon became _____ in English.
8. Why do soldiers wear uniforms? (Hint: relate your answer to the two Latin roots in the word.)
9. An auditor is someone who is appointed and authorized to examine accounts and accounting records. Explain how "auditor" connects to the Latin root aud, meaning "to hear."

10. What is a portmanteau?

11. If you were a porter, what would your job entail?

12. What does “adjacent” mean? How does it make use of the root jac?

13. How is “regulate” similar in meaning and origin to “regular”?

14. Why is a booklet sometimes referred to as a manual?