

CAN FREEDOM AND SECURITY BE BALANCED?

These questions must be answered with either a YES or a NO.
There are no exceptions. Be prepared to justify your answers.

	YES	NO
I am willing to give up my right to privacy if it means the government can catch the bad guys.
It is worth working more than 40 hours a week to feel financially secure.
I am happy to pay 35% of all I earn for protection and security from the police, fire department, armed forces, etc.
National security must always supersede citizens' rights.
It is wrong for the government to tap phone lines or control Internet use.
Laws restricting possibly dangerous activities (cliff diving, swimming, rafting) on public land are violations of our freedom and are unnecessary.
Being searched or going through metal detectors before entering school is okay.
Profiling, or searching people because they are of a certain ethnicity or religious group, is stereotyping and is wrong. It should never be done.
If we allow illegal immigrants equal civil liberties we will be subject to more crime and our security will be jeopardized.
